Rock Wall Wine Company represents a new chapter in the East Bay urban winemaking scene. Founded and operated by a small group of wine industry veterans, including consulting winemaker Kent Rosenblum and winemaker Shauna Rosenblum, the winery offers a unique experience for wine lovers, right in the heart of the San Francisco bay area.

Ideally situated on the western edge of the island of Alameda and housed in a 40,000 square foot hangar on the former Alameda Naval Air Station, the winery, tasting room and dome boast spectacular views of the San Francisco skyline. The winery takes its name from a WW II-era defensive rock wall, which once protected the perimeter of the navy base from torpedo attacks.

East Bay ❤️!
