ZINFANDEL

MONARCH STREET

VINEYARD NOTES

As you drive onto the former Alameda Naval Air base in Alameda, CA the defunct barracks and ramshackle buildings might persuade you to throw your GPS out the window. Then you turn onto Monarch street, where our awesome winery is located and where you can see the breathtaking views of the San Francisco skyline, and it all makes sense. This Zinfandel is crafted from multiple small lots of Zinfandel grown all over Northern California and blended together based on complimentary terroir driven aromas and flavor profiles.

PRODUCTION

All of the small batch lots of Zinfandel were fermented independently and carefully blended together to bring together the terroir that best represents our favorite vineyard sites in Northern California.

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

Black cherry and ripe strawberry aromas greet your nose followed by flavors of blackberry, sarsaparilla, cocoa puffs and cherry pie.
