PINOT BLANC

SCHRADER RANCH

MENDOCINO COUNTY

VINEYARD NOTES

As a law professor at the University of British Columbia, Canada, Gordon Jahnke was fortunate enough to take a one-year teaching sabbatical at the University of California, Berkeley. While there Gordon visited Mendocino County, and was taken by the beauty of the Ukiah Valley and the surrounding landscape. It was during that visit when Gordon decided he would someday own and live on a vineyard in Mendocino County. Gordon purchased the Schrader Ranch in 1993. At the time the majority of the 212-acre ranch was planted with pears. Over the next several years the property was replanted with grape vines, including the Pinot Blanc vines.

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

The floral terpene aromas in the aromatics of this wine are lovely. Bright aromas of Lily flower, pineapple, cantaloupe, kiwi and cucumber-melon-give way to flavors of nectarine, peach, lemon meringue pie, fennel and white cake.
